

Austin Sterling Tolle

May 8, 1996 - January 17, 2019

Austin Sterling Tolle, age 22, of Rosemount, Minnesota passed away on Thursday, January 17, 2019 due to a car accident.

He is survived by his parents: Marion & Tisha Tolle; his sister, Rachelle Tolle; his paternal grandparents: Kathy & Marion Tolle; his maternal grandfather, Melvin Wheeler; and his paternal grandmother, Marlene Soper. He is also survived by his aunts: Sarah Wheeler, Marche (Jim) Jerome, Marcia (Jeff) Patridge, and Marlisa (Kevin) Klinginsmith. Austin graduated from Pensacola Christian College in May 2018 with his RN and BSN degree. He was currently employed by the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota.

Austin was a passionate, caring man who never thought it above himself to talk or pray for someone who needed it desperately. His love for people was evident in his everyday walk and enthusiasm for life. He could bring a smile to anyone's face at any time, and that loud, obnoxious laugh you would hear at the most inappropriate times during a class was always a special laugh for everyone!

“ Austin always had a way of making the bad days seem like they were not all that bad. I have some amazing memories with Austin that I will forever cherish. We would meet in the evenings to study together as we were both trying to get into the program. He made these times of study fun, memorable, and relaxing. I had the honor of going with Austin to multiple different fine arts. I remember walking into the Crowne center and seeing him standing there with a massive teddy bear and a heart shaped box of chocolates. We took over 100 pictures probably just to get a decent one together because we both could not stop laughing. I hold onto the long walks we took on the beach when I spent the weekend with him and his grandparents in Navarre. We both loved the beach and he talked about how he loved watching the birds in the evening at sunset. I will always see him in the birds flying over the sand. Austin was a great friend and I am forever grateful for the few short years we got to know and spend with each other. Heaven gained a special angel. Love you Austin!

“ I was one of Austin's graduate assistant instructors and i watched him grow throughout his first two years in nursing school. He was one of those students that just brings so much joy with him wherever he goes. He never failed to make me laugh and i can remember just how proud i was of all the hard work he put into his nursing career. We may not know what God's ultimate plan is through all this, but He does have a perfect plan. and through all these pain and uncertainty we can all still rejoice and say that God is good and heaven gained a precious person in Austin.

“ I usually couldn't see Austin from where our seating chart had us in class, but I always knew which direction he was. Because every time something funny would happen or something funny was said, you could always hear Austin's distinct laugh in the middle of a dead silence. And then everyone would start cracking up again. He had a talent for turning a terrible day into an enjoyable one even if just for a moment.

“ One of my memories of Austin is the fact that every time he talk to you, he looked you straight in the eyes. You always felt all his attention was on you in that moment. He never shifted his eyes away, but just looked at you. That and his compassion made him the perfect nurse. He listened with his eyes.

“ You don't know me, however, I am a patient that your dear son/brother/grandson cared for at Mayo. Although we only spent two hours together, I feel I Had a chance to learn a little about who Austin really was. We shared a lot, and were surprised how much we had in common. I am an LPN who previously worked at Mayo starting at the same age as Austin. How special to see the excitement and adventure in a new nurse. I now work at a school in transportation similar to Dad , and Austin shared a great deal about his family; telling me how he reminded Mom how young she was — in her forties with at least forty more years to go saying “Mom— you're not old !” Austin shared how he made his way to Minnesota from Florida and how thrilled he was to have multiple offers at Mayo—and loved working on the floor he chose. For one year I commuted back and forth from Lakeville and we also discussed his commute and the dangers.....Austin touched my heart and I was anxious to see him at my next appt but it was not meant to be. God needed a very special nurse in heaven that day. Please know when I think of Austin I think of these words: caring, confident, cautious, conscientious , considerate, and kind. There are no words to express my sympathy but may you find comfort in your memories and knowing what an exceptional young man you had raised. May you feel the love and support of those lives Austin touched and peace from our prayers. To the family in Rosemount where Austin stayed —please know how appreciative and thankful he was that you opened your home to him. To his many friends —he loved each of you. Hugs and prayers to all of you who were blessed to have Austin in your lives.

“ Austin was an animal lover! he talked a big tropical fish game and convinced me to get a tank of my own. He even told me what fish to get and helped me set it up. It turned out to be a lot of work...so Austin agreed to take my fish into his care. The next weeks consisted of a constant update of the state of my dying fish—and then there were none LOL he was always so funny. I have so many memories flooding through my head. I never thought that some day I would be clinging onto them so tight, but I am so thankful for them—I value them. I looked up at the blood moon tonight and couldn't help but think of my dear dear friend looking down at all of us staring up at him. Love you, dear Angel.
