“ Eddie was a wonderful person to know and work with. I truly enjoyed my time spent with him. His approach to his job and co-workers was always a calming force in the midst of work chaos. His attitude of “never sweat the small stuff, and ...everything is small stuff” made him a pleasure to work with especially when he added his never ending ability to find the humor in any situation. He made an impact in the lives all his fellow workers.

He will live forever in our memories and hearts.

Joe Giammanco (Sardee Industries).
