“ As a kid, I was her neighbor for 15 years. David would come visit daily, if not more. Mary was often outside in the back yard. She was raking, picking up sticks and so on. She had the biggest compost bin that I had ever seen! I thought to myself, “I’d want one just like that someday”! But, I never have just yet. She didn’t like us kids touching her red wooden fence. It’s not that we meant to. We were just so busy playing that it would happen, a lot. LoL After I was grown and moved out, Mary became good friends with my folks. Dad would go over and help her with her yard quite often. Mary was a sweet lady.

“ Mrs. Mary's house seemed like a place of gentle joy despite all the busyness of us children running in and out. All these years later I understand that it was because both she and Mr. Clodfelter were people filled with gentle joy. Over these past 40 some years Mother and Dad have shared many memories of the love given and wisdom shared with them by your folks. Mom has told me, many times, just when the last time she talked to Mary and Joy was and wished she could get ahold of Mary again. Now, because of Black Oak friends we know the sad news and are heartbroken for the family, please know that we join in your sorrow and lift you up to our Father for his peace and care.
