Mami..

You work so hard to make sure we had everything you played a huge role in your grandbabies lives. You never showed us a struggling woman. You showed us a strong, prideful independent woman. You stood strong for so many years even until the very end. Now it's our turn to match your strength and be strong as you transition into our guardian angel. God may have you in his keeping, but you will forever be in our hearts. You will be sadly miss, but never forgotten Bendición .

A visitation will be held on Monday, February 13, 2023 from 10:30AM to 12:30PM at Memory Lane Funeral Home 6305 W Lincoln Highway, Crown Point, IN. A Funeral Service will be held at 12:30PM. Burial to follow at Memory Lane Memorial Park.

“ A letter to my Big Sister, Ada

Ada you have always been determined and a little hard headed. But you've always remained loving and caring no matter what life threw in your direction. When you got married you didn't forget your sisters or mami and papi. You came to visit us on Sundays and sometimes took Lydia or me to church. I loved our time at church together.

You would take me to fun places like the Old Chicago amusement park. I remember how much fun we had. I remember when the whole family went to Enchanted Forest. We had such a good time together. Those outings were ones I will always cherish.

Ada, you blessed our family with 2 amazing nieces Teresa and Judy, plus 2 amazing nephews Carlos and Jaime. Each of your children have your fighting spirit. Teresa has such a fighter and independent attitude just like you.

Teresa blessed you with a grandson Michael who is musically gifted. Michael also blessed you initially with his sweet girlfriend Courtney, then just this past year Michael and Courtney blessed you with your first beautiful great granddaughter, Stevie.

Judy, too, has your feisty and independent attitude. She also has a softer and gentle side like her mom. Judy met Rickie a strong and independent individual himself. They blessed you with 2 beautiful granddaughters, Esperanza and Yesenia. Esperanza has the fighter and independent attitude, too. Yesenia is barely two and you can already see her independent spirit.

Ada, you also blessed the family with two amazing nephews, Carlos and Jaime.

Carlos is strong and determined, which came from you, Ada. Carlos watched you fight through many challenges in life. No matter what, you pushed through. Carlos blessed you with two strong and intelligent boys, Hector and Little Carlos, who isn't so little anymore. Carlos reconnected with Mari, a high school sweet heart. Mari's warm and welcoming personality softened Carlos' rough edges. Jaime, your baby, has your caring and hard working spirit. Jaime's blessed your life with his love and support. He has a big heart like *you. He blessed you with his loving girlfriend Karina.

Ada, you've lived a hard life but you've always found a way to push through and fight for what you needed. You many times sacrificed your needs to ensure your kids had what they needed.
Ada you have been an amazing sister, mother, grandma and Tia. I know both mami and papi are proud of you. I cherish our times together both as a child and in our adult years. We share a love for Marc Anthony and tequila. Remember you loved my Olgaritas, basically tequila and lime. I was looking forward to going to the Marc Anthony concert together. I will never forget the joy Carlos and Mari gave you on Christmas Eve when you realized they purchased a ticket for you to the next Marc Anthony concert. I will remember the excited scream, "I'm going see Marc Anthony!" I know you'll be by our side at the Marc Anthony concert dancing 🕺 your heart away with no pain in your body and shaking your hips away. Say hi to Papi, tío Rafael and tío Juan.
Love, your baby sister, Olga*
