

Andrew Stevenson Textor

February 15, 1982 - January 8, 2021

Andrew Stevenson Textor, lovingly known as Andy, passed away on January 8, 2021. After five years of being held close in the hearts of those who loved him, Andy will be laid to rest.

Andy was a beloved son, brother, and devoted father. He was preceded in death by his father, Charles W. Textor.

He is survived by his mother, Constance Davis of Dyer, Indiana; his son, Carter Textor of St. Petersburg, Florida; his sister, Alison (Donnie) Higgins of Griffith, Indiana; and his brothers, Charles F Textor of Munster, Indiana, Glen (Jackie) Textor of Dyer, Indiana, and Bryan (Jennifer) Textor of Dyer, Indiana.

He is also survived by his nieces and nephews, David (Sarah) Higgins of Michigan City, Indiana; Vaughn, Calvin, Mason, Sammi, Sophia, Piper, and Max; and his great-nephews, Grayson and Graham.

Andy grew up in Griffith, Indiana, and graduated from Griffith High School in 2000. After graduating high school, Andy attended Vincennes University before moving to Fort Myers, Florida. He later received his degree in Marketing with honors from Purdue University in 2018 at the age of 36, an accomplishment he was very proud of. After graduating, he moved to St. Petersburg, Florida, to be closer to his son, Carter.

Being Carter's dad was the greatest joy of Andy's life, and the love he had for his son was something he carried with him every single day.

Andy will also be remembered for his love of Chicago sports, especially the Chicago Cubs and Chicago Bears. He looked forward to Sunday football with his family, loved playing games with his nephews, and enjoyed spending quiet time lying in the sun with his sister. He had a way of making people laugh, and his humor, warmth, and spirit will never be forgotten. Though his life was far too short, the memories he created and the love he shared continue to live on through those who loved him most.

Interment will be at Memory Lane Memorial Park in Schererville, Indiana and no services will be held.
