“ We will miss the participation of Brian when he attended Joes work functions and having him hang out in the parking lot with Joe. Its the small stuff in life. The best go out to you Marcia and Joe. Denise Moore

*Dear Marsha,
I will always remember the wisdom of Brian, which helped him to avoid many of the ideas that were circulating at a church that we attended. Some of us learned the hard way but Brian spared himself and his family from the consequences of unwise choices. I look forward to talking to him in the resurrection. May the grace of our Lord be with you and Joe. You have my sympathy.

Brian always had a big smile on his face every time we saw him at church. His love and care for Marcia and Joe were so sweet to see. His humbleness and behind the scenes work for the Lord is a true testament to his desire to serve. Love you Marcia and Joe!

“ I'm so thankful for knowing Brian for all of these years. Our times spent together in the work place, church and fellowships has taught me a great deal. His love for God and his wanting others to know Jesus was a priority of his life. It was his leadership that brought me back to the Lord. He was always willing to help wherever he could. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him. Rest in peace my friend.
