“ Mrs. Mosby and Bro. Mo were one of my favorite couples in church. For a young kid, they made being at church fun. Mrs. Mosby was always helping with get togethers and did such a wonderful job transforming a church basement into a beautiful, well-decorated party. She and Bro. Mo were great cooks as well. She seemed to always know just what to do or say to help others. I sure will miss her loving, kind-hearted spirit. My deepest sympathies to you all. We will see you again some sweet day.

“ I can't believe the timing. Carolyn just popped into my head today and I searched to see if I could find news of her. She was a coworker at St. James and was such a sweet lady. We shared many stories and laughs and also some great recipes. I am going to make some Mock Apple Squares in her honor this week. My condolences to her family. I know she will be dearly missed. She was so proud of all of you can spoke of you often. RIP Carolyn and give Gilda a hug from all of us too.

“ My Mema!!!! What a lady!!!! She was beautiful inside and out! She had a heart of gold, always wanting to help someone, always making a meal for someone! She was always busy in church, and doing the absolute best of serving the Lord! Even when she couldn't attend church the past few months, she would pray for her pastor and church family! She loved my girls so much and they kept her going especially after Pepa passed away in 2020. Heaven's gain, oh how I miss her! She is with Pepa now and I know they are running those streets of gold having a good ol' time! I love you Mema! ❤️ I will meet you at Jesus Feet!

“ One thing I will always remember is Mrs Mosby talking about watching the sky for Jesus to return...every morning, she would say, I'm watching the eastern sky! The look on her face...she loved her Saviour!

Thank you, Mrs Mo...for loving Him and loving your Pastor and his family!

“ I met Mrs Mosby in 2002. She was a major part of my church family. I loved working with her in the kitchen and nursery. She told me so many stories of her life and love of God. She was such an example of God's love! She always had a bag of candy to share on Sundays. Not only for the children, but for us adult children too. She never said a bad word about anyone. She will be missed by many. She diffinitely touched my life. She will be missed greatly.
