“ How can any of us who knew Curtiss, who we lovingly referred to as "Curt" be able to successfully sum up our feelings about such a wonderful man with mere words? My wife, Bobbi and I first met "Curt" back in the early 1980's and although we hadn't been lucky enough to have shared his company after he and Cynthia moved away from the Tampa Bay area, a boatload of great memories of the times we did spend together have sustained up through the years. We met when we all worked with A.L. Williams and he greeted us with that famous gregarious style that he possessed. He was just that kind of guy that you immediately took a liking to. Bobbi and I relish all the fond memories of the four of us riding around in his VW van and the fun filled cards games we used to have together, they were indeed, now looking back, very precious times indeed. He and Cindy made an unbeatable couple who shared all the good things life had to offer and were each other's strongest ally in any battle that they had to face. I will forever remember the great coaching he gave me, based on his natural, impeccable timing, on the finer points of a comedic presentation when I was to be a speaker at a roast that he had organized. A big smile that both my wife and I display at just the thought of Curt is evidence of how much we thought of him. We can only imagine how many other lives, that having been touched by him, has made them better off for doing so. What better compliment can be paid, that the mere thought of an individual immediately prompts a huge smile that brings along with it a flood of great memories and that is exactly what kind of man Curt was. Curt gave off a very bright light when he walked among us and in his absence all that remains is a glow. That glow is created by all the loving memories of him by so many. No one can live forever but the many pleasant memories of him by so many of those who were fortuitous enough to have known him will hold for as long as they live. Others should be as lucky to leave the kind of mark that Curt has left. He will be sorely missed by the multitude of those who were lucky enough to have known him and I hope that peace will come to his family through the pain.

“ He was a cousin of mine, he will be sorely missed. He made me laugh when I shouldn't of, he was a great person to have in your corner. At least now he's with Flora oh, and I know she welcomed him with open arms.

Curtis and Cyndi and baby Casey moved from Florida to Tennessee into a house down on white oak creek in Houston County. My husband and I with our four daughters lived there. I don't think it took Cyndi and Curtis long to know how bad Tennessee winters could be. Very sorry for your loss Cyndi. Prayers to your family

“ There are so many memories of Curt that it's hard to know where to start. He always held a very special place in our hearts and our lives, from our introduction when he was a one man show at the Yankee Clipper in Maderia Beach FL, to fixing and creating different vehicles for him over the years, meeting the love of his life, Cyndi and catching up with them in many different places where he was entertaining. Ron was honored to be Curt's best man when he married Cyndi. Our sons grew up with Curt's humor and fun personality. Losing him leaves a big hole in our hearts.

I met Curt in 1977 at the Hilton lounge. I just found out that he had passed away. Please let me know when he passed and what he died from. We had similar 1 man music-comedy solos. Plus, we shared a lot of laughs. Thank you
