Delores Jean Odom was born November 18, 1952 to the late Vera Mae Burll. She was employed by Resurrection Hospital for 16 years. She gave her life to Christ at an early age. She attended First Baptist Church in Hammond, Indiana. When not at work Delores loved to shop, cook, spend a lot of time with family, read her bible, and pray for her family and friends. She was the foundation for her family. No matter what it seems, she has always told us to pray because Jesus Christ will make it better.

Delores was one, no matter where she went, she had a smile that would light up a room. Delores had an outgoing spirit. She told everyone about Christ. Delores was a strong, determined bold, and inspiring woman. She has taught her family to always remain family no matter what adversities may come. Overall, she has shown how Jesus Christ is real through her ministry, her life, and love. This family was produced in the foundation of Jesus Christ and the outcome will be love.
