

Domitila Arambula

July 31, 1931 - July 18, 2022

Domitila Arambula was born on July 31, 1931 in Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico and passed away peacefully surrounded by family on July 18, 2022. Domitila was preceded in death by her parents Guadalupe and Maria de Lourdes (Plasencia) Vizcarra; brothers Jesus Vizcarra, Salvador Vizcarra, Juan Vizcarra; sisters Luz Vizcarra, Mercedes Valdivia, Macrina Navarro, and Esperanza Rodriguez; and her beloved nephew Fernando Vizcarra who she loved as a son.

Domitila is survived by her husband of 55 years Jesse Arambula; children Maria de Lourdes (Tony Montoya) Arambula, Jorge (Lori Herrera) Arambula; stepchildren Debra Herrera, Jesse (Irma) Arambula Jr.; grandchildren Victor (Vanessa) Pulido, Enrique Pulido, Adrian Pulido, Damian Arambula, Jaxton Arambula; great-grandchildren Amaya Pulido, Gianni Pulido, Milania Pulido; brothers Jorge Vizcarra, Enrique Vizcarra.

Domitila's biggest passion in life was spending time with her family. She loved her family unconditionally and her love knew no bounds. Making sure her family was always well fed was her top priority. The first question we'd all hear as we walked in the door was, "Ya comistes?" "Did you eat?". And you'd keep hearing it until you sat down for her to feed you. She loved gardening and took pride in the huge, beautiful dahlias she would grow every year. The sight of her beautiful flowers would make her eyes sparkle and give her the biggest smile. She loved listening to the Mexican classics especially her favorite band

Los Bribones, or dancing to her favorite dance song Camaron Pelado. And when it was time to enjoy a nice dinner out, she loved the buffets, and if it was Mexican food you can almost guarantee she'd be ordering her favorite - flautas.

As a young girl of around fourteen years old, she was crowned as her hometown's queen – La Reyna de Atemajac del Valle. She took such pride when reminiscing that special moment. But more than just for a moment, Domitila has always been and always will be the queen of her family's' hearts and she is sorely missed.

Visitation will be on Thursday, July 21, 2022 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. and another visitation on Friday, July 22, 2022 from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. with a service at 11 a.m. at Memory Lane Memorial Park 6305 W. Lincoln Hwy, Crown Point, IN 46307. Interment to follow at Calumet Park.
