“ I knew Dorothy as the mother of my friend Mike Weeks growing up in the Schilling Subdivision in Schererville Indiana. I remember Patti, David and Danny when he was little. Mike was my best friend when we moved into the subdivision from 1951 to 1957. Dorothy was always friendly and very nice to me when I came over. I always liked her and Mike and I had good times together. I now know why I did not hear from her at Christmas. I did get to talk with her a few times these last several years. I will remember her always.
