“ I first met Dorothy Woods when I was a freshman student nurse at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago in 1969. I knew her because of her involvement in the bus ministry in north Chicago. Dorothy showed friendship to me when it mattered. And she continued to show friendship to me whenever I would be at First Baptist through these many years. I'm thankful that I knew her!

Dorothy was my junior Sunday school teacher along with both of my daughters. She also helped me get my first job in Chicago at the National Safety Council. I really admired her.

Miss Dorothy was such a joy to be around! She loved and encouraged everyone she crossed paths with. She truly loved the Lord and spoke of Him often. I am so grateful to have gotten to know her and call her a friend!
