“ I worked with and around Freddy for many years most of my memories of him were of working in plant maintenance to help the regular “cleanup” on weekends and holidays. You could always tell where Fred’s group worked weekends before as it was done right and much easier to deal with. He disliked following up where some had done cleaning and insisted if we were going to work weekends we’d do the same areas so as not to follow up on shoddy work. Always someone you could count on to do his job and just a great guy. RIP Fred!
