“ Gloria was a good example to all of us. She always had more than enough love to go around, she was a good Christian woman and never questioned why, concerning her life, and the wonderful people that were taken so early from her. Gloria's glass was always half full. She saw the good in people and always went above and beyond to make the people around her feel her love. She was a Mother and Wife and Grandmother and then finally a Great Grandmother. I remember saying that I wanted to be just like her when I got grand babies...if I could be half as good I would be happy. Gloria was one in a million and our life will be empty without her in it.... May she run into Eugene's arms and kiss her son and be happy at last where she has wanted to be for such a long time.....with her Eugene, the love of her life!
