

Hal Tebo

December 21, 1956 - November 21, 2023

Hal R. Tebo, age 66, of Leland, NC, (previously from Schererville, In.) passed away surrounded by his family on Tuesday, November 21, 2023. Hal is survived by his loving wife, Charlotte (nee Douglas) daughter Staci (Jeremy) Errett and 3 precious grandchildren; Jake, Autumn and Katy Errett, Brothers-in-law Murray (Maralee) Douglas, Randy (Felicita) Douglas, Sisters-in-law Karen Douglas and Becky Douglas along with several nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by his parents: Glenn and Catherine Tebo, brother Larry Tebo, mother-in-law and father-in-law Mary and Marlin Douglas and brothers-in-law Ronald Douglas and Frank Douglas.

Hal was a 1974 graduate of Highland High School. He always said he was "Highland born and bred". He had a very strong work ethic and worked at the Orland Park Mercedes-Benz franchise for over 38 years. Hal loved Indy car racing and his various Porsches throughout the years. He was meticulous when it came to his lawn and his cars.

Hal was devoted to his family and friends, there was not a better son to his parents or in-laws in this world. He loved being a Papa, watching his grandkids in sports, plays and recitals as well as vacationing with them. His daughter was the apple of his eye and they loved each other deeply. Most of all he was a champion to his wife, loving her and being supportive of her unconditionally.

Hal was a faithful member of Livingston Baptist Church in Delco, NC and the Ambassador Sunday School Class. Our family is forever grateful to our Pastor Matthew Griffin and our entire church family for their prayers and support over the last year during Hal's illnesses.

We remember Hal as a loving and loyal son, husband, father, papa and friend, hardworking, honest, and Christ honoring man.

Tribute Wall

“ We only had the privilege of meeting Hal a couple of times through the years, but in those times it was evident what a good person Hal "is." Our memory of Hal will always be with a kind and gentle smile on his face. That he loved Char, his family, and lived a life following his faith.

Our deepest sympathy goes to Char, and family, and to everyone who knew and loves Hal. May Hal rest in eternal peace walking hand in hand with Jesus.
