“ Inez was one of the most genuine people we have ever met. She was inclusive and kind. We loved her spirit. We met her at the holidays in Four Winds and had such a great visit. When we were planning our recent Vegas trip, we had a chance to text and plot on what we were doing and we were excited for her to meet our kids who were also coming to Vegas. She saved us a seat at the event the night before she was hospitalized. She won a door prize and gave it to my daughter because she already had that item from Brian. We are heartbroken to lose her and want the family to know her love and kindness knew no boundaries. The world lost one of the good ones. We are so sorry for your family and wish you peace at this difficult time.

“ Inez was one of the most positive people I had the pleasure of knowing. Not sure I ever saw her without a smile...and her "animal" entourage. She will be truly missed at future events. Gone but not forgotten.

“ We have known Inez and her family since she was a teen girl -- she spent weekends and Sundays in our home and when I had kids, she would come and watch them when we were out of town. Of course, because of Facebook, we could keep up although we lived many hours apart in recent years...Inez always commented on my adult kids and now grandkids posts -- she never forgot a friend, and she had many...she will be truly missed...love and prayers to Josh and Jaxon, and her sweet mom...sent with love and a very sad heart...🙏😭❤️
