“ John was like a dad to me in a lot of ways. He gave me a lot of good advice that came in handy once I was grown up to realize he was right about hard work and walking a straighter path. He was funny and a very kind man to me.

“ Uncle Bubbles taught me how to drive a standard. He took Sherry and I to a parking lot and just let me jerk that little single cab truck all over giving all three of us whiplash, giving me encouragement the whole time!! His laugh and smile I will always remember.
