

Judith Wappner

June 12, 1959 - April 19, 2023

Judith Louise Wappner went to be with the Lord on Wednesday, April 19, 2023. She was born in Columbus, Ohio on June 12, 1959. She is survived by her very dear friends, Sarah Casteel, Beverly Capps, Becky Capps, Laurie & Jerry Ossewaarde family, Doug & Debby Kollar family (Anna, Steve, Amber, and Andy Kollar), and her entire church family.

Preceded in death by her parents, Leonard and Marjorie Wappner and sister, Marsha Wappner.

Judi earned her Master's Degree in Elementary Education in 1990.

Judi worked as a Record Secretary and in Computer Services for Hyles Anderson College. She loved her work, often "mothering" students like they were her own. She enjoyed knitting, golfing, visiting the beaches of Lake Michigan and cheering on Ohio State. Judi had a love for the children in her 2-year-old Sunday school class, and the 5-year-old children's church.

A Funeral Service will be held on Wednesday, April 26, 2023 at 1:00 pm at Memory Lane Funeral Home, 6305 W Lincoln Highway, Crown Point IN; Pastor Wilkerson officiating. Interment to follow. Friends may gather and visit from 11:00 am until the time of service at 1:00pm.

“ Judi and I spent many hours on the golf course together. We had good and bad days, but always had fun. Our first golf trip together was to Myrtle Beach. We were both beginners, Judi a little newer than me. On one especially hard course we both shot our ball near a huge sand trap that went from one side of the fairway to the other and was several yards long. Well Judi swung at the ball and hit it about a foot, then swung again and hit it in the sand, and then swung again and hit it another foot. At this point we are both laughing very hard. She then reached down and threw it with all her might over the sand trap into the fairway. I almost fell out of the cart laughing so hard.

We loved our time on the golf course together, good days and bad days! I do hope there is a lovely course with few sand traps in heaven where we can meet and play once again.

Love Becky
