“ SHE WAS AND STILL IS THE LOVE OF MY LIFE...I KNOW SHE WILL BE WAITING AT HEAVENS GATE WHEN I GET THERE...FRANK RECHLICZ

“ When I was younger you were my Sunday school teacher, being the young person I was, I took the fact that you had always been around for granted. I'm sorry for that. To this day I still remember those Sundays when you'd shower us with gifts like stuffed animals and food, I always had a lot a fun with you, always so giving I looked up you for how giving you were no matter how much sickness plagued you, you always stayed strong for the Lord. I'm sorry I didn't see you in the hospital, I guess I was just scared I'd see you die... I'm sorry I didn't see you. I miss you. I love you. I hope I can apologize in person someday.
