“ My Sister was the most kind, loving, person in the world. She would lite up the room with her smile. She was always looking for the good in people. Always helped others any way she could ,and She never ever meet a stranger. She loved to talk and talk. She lived Her life to the fullest. Took care of all the kids. Her motto was always (be grateful and not hateful). Our family has been blessed, to have her for 54 years. God decided it was time for her to come home. We don't understand but we know it's in his plan. On Thursday May 24th 2018 She gained her offical angel wings.. This world will never be the same.

“ Lora has always been the most Loving, Caring & Sharing person I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. She left a legacy for others to follow, Always treat others as if you are seeing or talking to them for the last time. I talked to Lora the night before she passed and she was so excited and talkative. I told Lora I loved her and I would see her soon. I had Know idea that our conversation was our last. I will miss Lora so much, but I am so glad I know where she will spend her eternity. Lora Loved the Lord, I know that Lora is know enjoying her heavenly reward and she is getting to be with beloved Dad, Richard & Geary. Thank You Lora for your life, your Love, Your Friendship, Your compassion for others. You never wanted to hurt anyone's feelings. You loved your family with your Whole Heart. I know you are now enjoying your Heavenly reward I apologize for being selfish, but I will miss you. You are definitely one in a million.

Love from your,
Cousin / Friend

“ Lora just shared with me on Tuesday how life was a "walk in the park". She was enjoying her nieces and nephews and loved the newest addition "Aubrey". She laughed and laughed that Zachary just was married on Tuesday (my birthday) but how he was "hit by a train" literally on hers! She loved her family and we reminisced about our childhood memories of Kentucky. Lora was always so thoughtful! She was always thinking about everyone else and how she cared and loved them. I will treasure our memories!
