“ Pastor Mark and Mrs Sigstad were tremendous influences for good in my life and many others. I remember hearing Pastor Mark preach for the first time in the mid 90s at the Independent Baptist Church, Bodija, Ibadan, Nigeria and the peace that flooded my troubled teenager heart as he "line by line, precept upon precept" taught from the Bible. He had an amazing gift of teaching! I learnt the joy and peace of trusting in Jesus Christ alone for my salvation. I grew as a Christian and came to love God and His Word under his ministry. I remember Mrs Sigstad with great fondness too as she led the Phoster club for ladies's soul winning and taught us to be women of virtue by her hard work and meek and quiet spirit. I am thankful to God for your service as missionaries and the tremendous impact you had on my life and many others for eternity. Pastor Mark, you always said you expected us to cry at your funeral and trust me, I cried when I learned of your deaths. But I take comfort in the fact that I will see you both again someday beyond the clouds.

“ We met Pastor Mark and Mrs. Sigstad in Ibadan in the late '80s and they were just the best most sincere people. Loving and practical - teaching the importance of living out Jesus' message with soul winning, giving to and loving others. We had such fun in church as well, with Vacation Bible School and epic Saturday volleyball matches with them and all the boys. They are now resting in the loving arms of Jesus and have left a blessed legacy impacting us all over the world.

“ My wife Sue and I had the Sigstads at our home for supper when they first came to New Manna Baptist Church for a Missions Conference back in 2007. We loved them and so did our Church. They came to our Church many times, we truly loved them. They will be extremely missed. Praying for their family!

“ My heart breaks for all of you. Brother Mark and Sister Linda were two of the best people I have ever known. I went to Nigeria in 2007 on a Mission trip with my church, New Manna Baptist (Marion, NC) and they were so good to all of us. It was so wonderful to see how much they loved the African people & how much they cared for their souls. They loved their family even more and spoke highly of you. I am praying God's grace and comfort for all of you. 🙏❤️🙏
