

Mark Rader

May 15, 1980 - February 22, 2023

Mark Rader was born on May 15, 1980, in Portsmouth, Virginia. He was son to Kyle and Carla Rader, and brother to: April(sister), Kyle(brother), Chrystal(sister), and Hannah(sister).

Mark grew up attending the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, and graduated from Hyles-Anderson College. While attending college he met his lovely wife Sarah (née Davis). They were married on June 10, 2006. Mark was a loving father to six children: Savanah, Paul, Samuel, Rebekah, Luke, and Timothy. His kids will miss most his laughter and his amazing bed time stories.

From a young age, Mark had a passion for serving the Lord. He surrendered his life to preach when he was a teenager. Later, as a young adult, the Lord gave him the opportunity to preach in the First Baptist Church bus routes and Chapel ministry. Mark and his family were dedicated missionaries for the past 10 years to Lima, Peru South America, reaching the lost for Christ.

Mark will forever be remembered for his passion and zeal for God, his hard work, and his heart for missions. He will also be remembered for how he could light up a room when walking in and making everyone smile and laugh.

He was loved by family, friends, and by the people God used him to reach for Christ.
