“ *Mike, may you now rest and have some peace. May you and God guide your children in the right direction to help create a better life for themselves. Keep a strong watch on them as they grow and turn into parents one day, Be proud to watch them carry on your strong work ethics, values and the great person and peacekeeper that you were known to be. “ *It doesn't sound right
But I need to text you one more night.
I put away the stage fright
Now listen to me write:*

*Mike,
What can I say
You were big in every way
I wish I could give you one more day.
More hours of life
A chance to kiss your wife
To calm another's strife
A chance to hold your daughter
A chance to be that father
They have to miss you that much
You had that special touch
The laugh of a fool
Anger of a bull
You were a real tool
Always acting tuff
Yet no one could get enough
Fun to be around
Remember us acting a clown?
In the escort, cruising the town
Can't imagine earth without your sound
Hard to believe your sun went down
We'll see you on heavens playground.*
