

Nancy J. Sharp

October 28, 1942 - April 26, 2025

Nancy J. Sharp, 82, of Lafayette, Indiana, passed away peacefully on April 26, 2025. A loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. Nancy will be remembered for her joyful spirit and her deep love of family.

Born on October 28, 1942, in Hammond, Indiana, Nancy was the daughter of Elmer E. Osborne (1916–1993) and Rachel E. Osborne (1919–1981). She grew up with a strong sense of family and tradition that she carried throughout her life and passed down to her children.

Nancy found joy in the everyday moments. She especially loved watching movies—everything from timeless classics, action packed adventures, to lighthearted comedies. She was always ready for a trip, whether it was a weekend getaway, Disney World trip, or a tropical adventure. Her summers were filled with happiness in the garden, where she nurtured flowers and vegetables with care and pride, sharing her bounty with everyone. She enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and was always ready for a trip to get ice cream.

She is survived by her daughter, Gail Bruce, and her son, Danny Sharp, who were the center of her world. Nancy's warmth, gentle humor, and steady presence will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing her.

In remembrance of Nancy, her family encourages you to plant something beautiful in your garden this year—or take a moment to enjoy a favorite movie in her honor.
