“ Nate,

We didn't know each other all that well but you definitely left an impression. You possessed significant knowledge about the futures biz, and always took the time to teach and explain to the newbies. Not to mention your adventure on the church steps with Mike S and Ryan S!!! Robin always enjoyed spinning that yarn. Godspeed Nate. See you on the other side.

“ Nate, you were many things to many people but to me you will always be the sweet man I married. Not many people got you know you and your sarcasm, sense of adventure and your laugh. I went through our old pics and I can't believe your gone. Xoxo(xxx)

“ Nate, to say you were unique is an understatement. Your loyalty, humor and positive attitude and generosity are the memories that will live forever.

Larry, I was married to Nate when he worked for you. He thought of you as a mentor. Thank you for taking him under your wing.

“ Nathan, how I loved you little bro. We just spoke the other day & were talking about our 39 year relationship. Your mama was so good to me when I was just a young college kid. You & Lisa became my little brother & sister. How I LOVED you! You could make me laugh with your dry humor. How you could say such sarcastically funny things with a straight face was beyond me. I'll miss you little bro, but I take comfort in the fact that I will see you again! Til Heaven, your big sis, Mistie 🧑🏻♀️
