“ I first got to know Nick at South Point Community Church. We worked together in the children's ministry; he was one of the most dedicated team members in that ministry. My husband and I took him out for coffee so we could workshop some new procedures for the kids ministry. It was nice getting to know him that day. Being single at the time, he expressed his deep desire to fall in love, get married have a family. He really wanted that. I am so glad that when he passed away, he had Katie, Katelyn, Danny, Hollis and James. He had a rich and full life. He was happy.

“ I'm going to miss all the times we went fishing, had a camp fire at your place or the other Nates place! The car pool rides to work were awesome and all the arguments of why I was wrong the Bears were Super Bowl Contenders. I went out today to one of our spots and caught one! The photo of you was our last time out with your catch. Mine is of today.

I love you bro! Won't forget how you treated others, how you led your family, how you pursued your faith and grew your faith. I will make sure that your legacy.... Sarcasm, great beard and everything else you epitomized lives on!

I expect to have a massive bonfire and fish fry bbq ready when we get up to Heaven.
