

Randy Ericson

May 11, 1945 - December 13, 2016

Randall G. Ericson, 71, formerly of Schererville, Indiana, departed this life after a valiant battle with cancer. His undaunted spirit and gratitude for life never succumbed to disease. He esteemed his friends above himself. He enriched his family with love and wisdom. He graduated from this life with his eyes fixed on Jesus.

Born in Chicago, Illinois on May 11, 1945, he went home to Heaven on December 13, 2016 from The Villages, Florida.

He served as a medic in Vietnam as part of the 51st Medical Division during the years 1964 - 1965. Upon returning from war, he became a licensed plumber in Chicago. After giving his life to the Lord in 1971, he put his skills to use in the Lord's work. As a member of First Baptist Church of Hammond, he served on staff as the head of maintenance for 39 years. He served as a fervent and faithful Sunday school teacher to 2nd grade boys for 45 years. His life can be summed up as a faithful servant who used the tools he was given to invest in the lives of others. He never wanted to minister to thousands, but at the end of his life, he did reach thousands. He just did it one person at a time.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Raymond N. and Angeline T. Ericson; brother: Barry Ericson, and brother-in-law: Tom Janel. He is survived by his beloved wife, Adrienne; daughters: Jessica (Travis) Bradley of Charleston, WV, and Joy (David) Jorgensen of Dawsonville, GA; 12 grandchildren: Autumn, Travis, Caleb, Kayla, Angelia, Hannah, Curtis, Luke, and Faith Bradley, and Kenton, Nolan, and Corban Jorgensen; and a loving sister: Carole Janel of Oak Lawn, IL.

“ I worked under Bro. Randy, when he was here. I was one of the custodians. Heaven is much richer because of Bro. Randy.

“ Mr. Ericson was very special to me . He was not only my Sunday school teacher but my dear friend. He would not only visit me while I was in his class, but even when I was no longer in the class. He never forgot about his Sunday School kids. When he would see my mom in church, he would always ask her how I was doing. He was definitely one of my hero's. I loved him dearly and will miss him.

“ This is a brief memory of the first thing I learned about Randy Ericson, my brother-in-law.

Living in the East, a long way from parents and siblings, in a time before email and cell phones, news of Adie and her two young girls was through conversations with Mom and Dad. I had not met Randy much before his marriage to Adie, but I remember asking Dad what he thought of Randy knowing he would have 'sized him up.' Dad, a man of few words when it came to matters of the heart, replied: "He's a good guy."

Dad got it right!

“ I remember Bro. Randy and the times we talked. I also have something very rare from him, he signed my Bible before we left Hammond to go serve. I am sorry for your loss and ours but heaven will be sweeter one day when we get there!

“ Randy and Steve worked together on many projects for FBC starting from the late 1970's. They have continued to enjoy a comfortable friendship for these many years. One day, Randy decided that Steve and I needed to learn how to fish! We spent many overnights in the early years up at the Lighthouse at Lake Michigan, and to the St. Joe river. Randy said that while fishing through the wee hours, was where he begged God to show him answers for his life. The first fish I (Kitty) caught was a 17 lb. Steelhead! And then was promptly "slimed" with it by Randy! And that laugh of his, when he did it?, was pure Randy! Head thrown back, and a belly laugh! One time, Randy was napping on the concrete pier, while we were way out at the Lighthouse. Steve and I were fishing, and a storm was coming in. We were getting worried, but Randy kept sleeping. Finally a wave broke over the barrier and washed under Randy, and woke him up. Matter-of-factly, he stood up, and said, "I guess we should head back!" What an adventure!

Randy was "plumbing" and Steve was "electrical". Together they secretly laughed at their "technique" which was called "R.I.O." (Rip It Out!) LOL! Our 5 children had many escapades in their shop ~ smoking salmon, foosball, basketball, making projects, rowdiness resulting in stitches . . . they stacked up many fond memories. His influence was such that our eldest son is now a licensed plumber, having learned some of the basics as a youngster while on jobs with Randy and Steve . We will miss Randy, but know that we have a glad reunion day to look forward to! Thanking God for Heaven!

“ Randy was family, and we were always so glad to spend time with him and Adrienne. We took several trips with them, that Randy spearheaded. He was always happy to be able to see us experience and enjoy things that he had enjoyed before. We saw a lot of the fun, and the not so serious side of him, but he always made it clear that pleasing his Savior, came first. So many good memories, I'll miss you Randy, but know I'll see you again when it's my time! Your Sister in Law, Pam.

“ I only have wonderful memories of Mr.Randy. That's what the kids at camp would call him. When he spoke children listened in a way that was amazing. He was also a Dad that anyone would love to have . hid daughters are proof of that. I just want the family to know he lives on through you all.. To Mrs.. Randy(his wife) my heart is with you and my prayers. You too are a wonderful person. Psalms 46

“ During church camp one year, brother Randy came up to me and told me that I was one of the most dedicated and hard working young ladies he's seen. That was the nicest thing anyone has ever said to me and I will always remember that. He had such an impact to anyone he came in contact with. When you talked to him, you could tell that he truly cared and you could see the passion he had for others to know Christ.

“ Clay Strouble said they went fishing to Canada in August 2016. Randy would get up in the wee hours of the morning, do down by the lake and sing aloud, raise his arms and Praise the Lord.

I also heard that he woke the whole cabin up, but they loved hearing him 😊
