

Richard Lee Borkowski

October 16, 1957 - August 9, 2017

Richard “Rick” Lee Borkowski, 59, of Crown Point, Indiana, passed away on Wednesday, August 9, 2017. Rick was born on October 16, 1957, in Marinette, Wisconsin, to William Borkowski and Shirley (Vanderbloomer) Borkowski.

Rick graduated from Coleman High School in 1975 where he was both a football player and wrestler. Long before his school days were over, Rick began working for his father’s plumbing business on weekends and summers. On October 25, 1975, Rick married Pamela Bieber. Through the years, Rick and Pam had three lovely children: Jamie, Jodie, and Jared.

In 1988, Rick moved his family to Northwest Indiana from Pound, Wisconsin, to attend Bible college. His deep-rooted love for God extended to many various ministries throughout the years. Rick worked on bus routes bringing many inner-city children to church each Sunday. Rick also served the Lord each week with other men of his church by holding services at city jails and state prisons. Most recently, Rick taught a teenage boys Sunday school class. While the group of people to whom he ministered changed throughout the years, one thing never changed—his love for people.

For over 20 years Rick has been the owner of Borkowski Plumbing, primarily servicing new homes in Northwest Indiana and south Chicagoland. Rick worked daily with his son, Jared, and employed his grandsons during the summer—teaching a fourth generation of plumbers.

Rick could be described in a few simple words: he was a man with a heart of gold. If he knew you were in need, he would give the shirt off his back to help. Some of Rick's favorite things to do in life included teasing his grandchildren, taking trips to Hawaii, whistling as he walked, talking to other contractors, going out to eat, and walking around the Lake County Fair.

Rick was preceded in death by his father, William, only two months ago. Rick is survived by his wife, Pamela, and their three children: Jamie (Brian) Hasse, Jodie Borkowski (Travis Evans), and Jared (Rachel) Borkowski. Rick and Pam have 8 grandchildren: Troy Hasse, Jace Borkowski-Caldwell, Trevor Hasse, Trinity Hasse, Reagan Borkowski, Brit Borkowski, Beau Evans, and Reese Borkowski.

A viewing will be held on Sunday, August 13, 2017 from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. at the Memory Lane Funeral Home, 6305 W. Lincoln Highway (US 30), Crown Point, Indiana. The funeral service will be on Monday, August 14, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. at Memory Lane Funeral Home. Burial will immediately follow the service.

“ So sad to hear of Rick's passing. I have many happy memories with Rick as we were growing up together. Our homes were separated by a couple of miles of woods and swamp. I walked a road to a railroad track to the river, and we ice-skated on the river that skirted his family home. We hunted in Wyoming with our fathers. We rode bicycles to 2-a-day football practices before we could drive. Our families shared a swimming pool, so we spent summers together. And we worked at the Krueger/Krause lumber yard together. So many fun memories. I will remember Rick always as a great friend with a huge heart. He is now with his father and mine. I miss him already.

“ So sorry for your loss. Rick was a classmate of mine--in fact we were homecoming king and queen one year. He didn't make it up to Coleman for this last reunion, but still managed to message a few of us. Condolences to the family.

So very sorry for your loss. Some times it's hard to remember that God is still there. Even when we have a hard time finding him he is already holding us in his hand. Love to your family from Dick and Corine

My deepest sympathy to the whole family. Ricks dad and my husband who passed away in January were first cousins. It is so hard to accept but God has ways to ease the loss. He was a nice man and will be missed. Karon (Dale) Borkowski
