“ So sorry to hear about her passing, but you have the comfort of knowing that she will have a joyous reunion with your dad. They have run the race and will spend eternity together in a glorious place.

I remember how gracious and accepting your mom and dad were in welcoming me into the family. It was a big family to come into, and their acceptance was a great comfort to me.

All my best wishes,
Terry Fuller

“ I have so many fond memories of Ms. Ruth. The latest was lunch at Jennifer and Tom's home. Ms. Ruth would just starting singing praise and worship songs or quote a favorite verse. Her little expressions,laughter international coffee with sweets will always be remembered and her sugar cookie too. Oh how wonderful to know as much as we are already missing her she is safe at home with the Lord a. God is Faithful.

Love hugs and prayers to all the family.

“ My memory of this precious saint is nothing short of Jesus with skin on it. As the Lord would have it we Texans landed just one street over from the Lewis family. Her one boy Sam and my one boy Lionel became good friends. She and her precious husband were like have family away from home. Loved her and her steadfast love.

God bless all of you as you say goodbye for now. I know her absence will be felt deeply for all of you and in many ways. Love and prayers for all of you till we all meet again one day in the sweet bye and bye❤️

It was such a blessing for me to spend the past 6 months spending time with Ruth as a companion. He was such a sweet soul. I loved spending time with her. We sang old hymns every day. Her and I would spend time praying for her family. I'm going to miss her gentle smile and her sense of humor. Till we meet again. I will cherish time I was honored to spend with her.
