

Ruth Sandefur

September 29, 1932 - October 5, 2024

Ruth Sandefur, age 92 of Merrillville, IN went to be with the Lord on Saturday, October 5, 2024. She is survived by her loving daughters, Sheila Sandefur and Brenda Doyle; loving son, Steven Sandefur; granddaughters, Kristen Doyle and Kelly (Diego) Doyle Avila; great grandson, Logan Doyle; and several nieces and nephews.

Preceded in death by her beloved husband of 56 years, Curtis Sandefur Sr.; son, Curtis Sandefur Jr., five siblings and her parents, Dewey and Maude Purnel.

Ruth lived for Jesus. She was a Sunday School teacher since 1960, served in the Nursing Home Ministry and Witnessed to everyone she had the pleasure to meet. Ruth loved to read her bible, to bake, attend church and loved hummingbirds and cardinals. In her later years, when it was more difficult to travel; she enjoyed chatting with her friends on the phone and receiving mail. Ruth enjoyed a good piece of chocolate and always said "I never met a chocolate I didn't like." What she loved the most in life, was being a wife, mother and grandmother. Her guidance and spirit for life will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

“ Mrs Ruth always made me feel so loved and special. Like I was the most important person to her. Her greatness is that she made everyone feel that special. Her family knew that were the cream of the crop to her. But the biggest things about Mrs Ruth is how much she loved her Lord and shared him with others!

I wasn't notified about the funeral. There idiots!

*I think you meant "they're," but that's ok, we'll let it slide. How sad that you can't even comment under your own name!
So many things I can say, but out of respect to my grandmother, I won't. What I will say is that she prayed every day that you would come back home but instead you chose to walk away. She cried so many tears over you and quite honestly, I can't fathom why! When she died, my sister and I searched for you for MONTHS and even hired a PI. This is so sad.*
