

Travis Pace

June 21, 1992 - August 1, 2021

Travis D'Angelo Pace was born June 21, 1992 in Oaklawn, IL. He was known and will always be remembered as a people-person, natural jokester, free spirited man, and the center of attention.

Besides spending time with family & friends, Travis had a passion for cars, DIY projects, and enjoying life. He had a bright and energetic personality. He was a driven, determined, and hardworking man who was known to be sharp, witty, and sarcastic at times. With compassion and sensitivity, he touched the lives of all who knew him, and his smile inspired us all to live life to the fullest.

After graduating from Crown Point High School, Travis and Stacy moved to Las Vegas where he joined the Unified Culture car club. After a brief residence in Vegas, the family moved to Florida where he established Quick Pace Transport in November 2020. With his eyes on the future, he was looking to continue building upon his adventures and success with his growing family.

Travis made his transition on August 1, 2021 at the tender age of 29. He leaves behind his parents Tammy & Piagi Phelps, his siblings Trevoy, PJ, & Tamrion, his grandparents Barbara Forte, Alfred & Deborah Phelps, aunts Lolita, Kimberly, and Sonia, his loving cousins Angelo, Kenya, and Carmache, fiancé Stacy Huemmerich and soon to be born son Travis D'Angelo Pace II.
