“ Tyrone was my brother from another mother. He was always picking on me and making fun of me. It was all out of love. I remember we would play monopoly for hours and hours. He showed no mercy when we would play any type of games. He always wanted to win. I'm going to miss playing games with you Tyrone. You can rest now brother. I love you

“ Ty my heart just breaks that you aren't with us anymore. You were more than my Cousin's husband, you were more like the big brother I never had. We all loved you and we will not be the same without you. The sweetest most caring genuine person I know. Praying for comfort for the entire family at this time.
